Grand Court update...

Hello members, I would like to keep in touch with you as to how things are progressing on our Grand Court session. I am sorry that nothing came out last Friday as I was attending Washington Grand Court. Unfortunately things are slow but we are being productive. As I have been saying, once we have something in line it will be shared with everyone. This is not an easy task as there are many different aspects that need to be considered. I have been in touch with Valley River Inn as well as many other venues, each with their own downfalls and we are trying to take into consideration everything that needs to be accomplished to make things work as efficiently as possible. Please, I ask again, to be patient. I know it is difficult not knowing, but we are doing the best we can and I hope to have further information by the end of this week.

I appreciate your continued support and patience in this very trying time.

In Amaranth Love

Judy Jones, Grand Royal Matron
